THE BREVITY BASKET.

Filled With Brief Mention of Many Minor Events of Yesterday.

George Price, a carpenter, was sent to jail for eighteen months for stealing from his fellow workmen.

Nelson Burrill, colored, was fined $5 for having painted his face green and attracting large and disorderly crowds by his actions.

The laying of the wires on the route between the President's house and the Capitol having been completed, another line of buried wires is now being constructed via Louisiana avenue and Four-and-a-half street, from police headquarters to Maryland avenue and Four-and-a-half street.

A carriage, containing Mr. Horace R. Wood and his daughter, was overturned by running into a ditch about noon yesterday on Maryland avenue, near the eastern toll gate. Mr. Wood was uninjured, but the lady had her face badly bruised and cut. She was taken home by her father.

Mr. Michael Ready, an old gentleman well known in East Washington, yesterday, while digging under his house, Mary Massachusetts avenue northeast, was seriously injured by the house falling on him. He was taken to Dr. Bond's office and medical aid rendered. The doctor says his injuries are very serious.

At the session of the Grand encampment I. O. O. F., on Tuesday night, Mr. John T. Given, the grand representative of the very interesting report of the legislation made by the Sovereign Grand lodge at its last session, and also showing the large growth in numbers, wealth, and liberality of the order.

Workmen are now engaged in laying out a parking on the east side of Seventh street, between Maryland and Virginia avenues. This will compel wagons to pass between the safety gates, instead of going around, as some drivers now do when they are in a hurry and think they can beat an approaching engine.

Detective Block was in the police court yesterday charged with having gone to the residence of Ella Simms to get her to go to Prince George county, Maryland, to see out a warrant for rape against James Hunter, and when she refused to go he took both her and her mother to the train and took them to Bladensburg, where the warrant was issued. It is further alleged that her father met Block and asked him about what had happened, when he put the nippers on him and locked him in the station house for several hours and then turned him out without preferring any charge against him. The case was continued for one week.

THE COMMISSIONERS.

Current Transactions at the Various District Offices.

M. De Bille, the Danish minister, writes to the district commissioners proffering several suggestions in relation to the need of establishing hack stands on the public squares and avenues, and suggesting that they should be increased in numbers rather than discontinued, especially in the northwestern section of the city.

The commissioners have had the subject of hack stands under consideration for several days, and have invited the proprietors of the herds and hansom cabs to a conference this morning. A number of locations have been suggested and there appears to be a decided demand for one-horse vehicles within easy call of the northwestern section of the city. It is probable that the following points will be designated as hack stands, and the number to be allowed on each will be determined at the conference to-day: Pennsylvania avenue, between Thirteenth and Fourteenth streets; Pennsylvania avenue, between Ninth street and Louisiana avenue; Mount Vernon square; Fifteen-and-a-half street, between H street and Pennsylvania avenue; Nicholson square; Farragut square, Scott circle, Dupont circle, Washington circle, and Pennsylvania avenue, between Twenty-ninth and Thirtieth streets.

In the annual report of the secretary to the commissioners last office forwarded copies of orders made by the board during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1883, and says: "For several years past I have recommended that provisions be made for a better arrangement of the old records of the government in the district that preceded the form at present in operation, but the needs of the district in other directions seems to have precluded such favorable action as would otherwise have been given." It renews his suggestion on that subject.

The commissioners have received a copy of the twenty-eighth annual report of the board of visitors of the government hospital for the insane for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1883, forwarded by Dr. W. W. Godding, superintendent.

Joa. C. Cogins has been appointed an additional private on the police force.

The Hotel Warwick, whose advertisement appears this morning, is one of the most substantial structures in the country, being of brick and absolutely fire proof, with an outlook upon the beautiful waters of the Chesapeake and right in the heart of Newport News, which in time promises to be one of the most important commercial points on the Atlantic coast. This hotel has been built by enterprising capitalists in anticipation of the growth of the city, and visitors on their way to and from the south will find it pleasant and profitable to stop at the Warwick and study the wonderful prospects of Newport News.

OVERCOATS, EISENMAN BROS., COR. SEVENTH AND E.

Another Old Resident Gone.

Mr. John H. Moore, an old resident of the district, died yesterday morning in his 71st year. He was a native of New Boston, N. H., and during the early years of his life was largely engaged in mercantile pursuits in Manchester in that state, and was at one time a member of the New Hampshire legislature. For the last twenty-two years he has resided in the district of Columbia, and for some years, until his health began to fail, kept a grocery store on Pennsylvania avenue. He was a man much esteemed by those who knew him well for his honor, integrity, and great kindness of heart. The remains will be taken to New Hampshire for interment.

If your complaint is want of appetite, try half a wine glass of Angostura Bitters half an hour before dinner. Beware of counterfeits. Ask your grocer or druggist for the genuine article, manufactured by Dr. J. G. B. Siegert & Sons.

Marriage Licenses.

The following marriage licenses were issued yesterday: Joseph P. H. Coldwell and Eda A. Dallas, both of Washington, D. C.; Charles Denis Hood, of Washington, D. C., and Addie Edmonds Lunford, of Warrenton, Va.; John H. Hawley, of New York city, N. Y., and Lucette Hurley, of Washington, D. C.; Garrison Johnson and Henrietta Johnson, both of Washington, D. C.; Edward Johnson and Virginia Hammond, both of Washington, D. C.; J. S. Smith and E. J. Taylor, both of the district of Columbia; William Hay and Cella Chapman, both of Warrenton, Va.; John Ritz and Katie Flaven, both of Washington, D. C.

Remarkable Escape.

John Kuhn, of Lafayette, Ind., had a very narrow escape from death. This is his own story: "One year ago I was in the last stages of Consumption. Our best physicians gave me case up. I finally got so low that our doctor said I could not live twenty-four hours. My friends then purchased a bottle of Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs, which benefited me. I continued until I took nine bottles. I am now in perfect health, having used no other medicine."
